PROGRAM: EXECUTIVE M.A. IN INTERNATIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS (MAESTRÍA DERECHO INTERNACIONAL DE LOS DERECHOS HUMANOS – TAUGHT IN SPANISH)

Program Focus
Recommended Major:
Law

Duration:
2 years

Level of study:
Master of Arts

Description:

This M.A. programme –the first of its kind at UPEACE and developed in conjunction with the Costa Rican Bar Association– aims to provide participants –most of them working professionals in the fields covered by the programme’s curriculum– with the necessary skills to understand and apply the main theoretical and practical aspects of Public International Law and the national, regional and universal mechanisms for the protection of human rights, coupled with the review and analysis of Costa Rican legislation on the matter.

Considerable attention is paid to the role of international law on peace and conflict, particularly the queries related to collective security agreements, international humanitarian law and peacebuilding. The programme consists of four modules that can be taken independently or sequentially towards an M.A. programme.
