

ULATINA

PROGRAM: FILMING IN NATURE

Program Focus
Recommended Major:
Audiovisual production and media studies

Duration:
1 or 2 weeks

Level of study:
Undergraduate

Description:

Costa Rica has 5% of the worldwide biodiversity, as a product of the number of microclimates, access to both the Pacific and Atlantic coast, primary forest, rainforest, and dry tropical forest. These characteristics make our country the perfect location to learn about filming in nature.
